

it is extremely important that our media is not owned by only a handfull of companies! We need more diversity, not less. I do not want to hear the same news or music on all the stations. I want access to all sides of the issues. Why is this not a priority?